

Bartlett City Schools

Eclipse 2017

Bartlett City Schools is providing glasses for each student to allow for viewing the partial eclipse taking place on August 21, 2017. The Department of Teaching & Learning has collected resources to help support planning for meaningful instruction during this time. While this list provides a starting point, please feel free to incorporate your own creativity!

<https://eclipse2017.nasa.gov>

This site is ultimate one-stop shop with resources, activities, and general information. Activities and lessons are given for elementary, middle, and high school.

<https://eclipse.aas.org/resources/educational-materials>

The American Astronomical Society has a listing of various educational websites as well as PDFs you may find useful!

<https://www.scholastic.com/teachers/blog-posts/angela-bunyi/2017/The-Solar-Eclipse-Classroom-Activities/>

Scholastic has fun facts, as well as resource links for grades 1-2 & 3-5.